

Energy Deals for September 2018

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Idaho Solar 1 Project	40-megawatt biomass power plant located in Kuna County, Idaho. The plant produces electricity for approximately 29,000 households.	The project was acquired by Sustainable Power Group, via its financial sponsor Alberta Investment Management from DEPCOM Power, through an LBO on September 24, 2018 for an undisclosed sum.
Overland Petroleum	Distributor of fuel products. The company distributes wholesale gasoline and diesel fuel to unbranded fuel retailers and commercial customers.	The company, a subsidiary of DATS Trucking, was acquired by Offen Petroleum, via its financial sponsor Lariat Partners, through an LBO on September 26, 2018 for an undisclosed sum.
Paradigm Energy Partners	Operator of midstream assets in the Bakken Shale in North Dakota and the Eagle Ford in South Texas. The company is engaged in the designing, construction and operation of pipelines for the storage, processing and transportation of crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids and focuses on the creation of vertically integrated gathering, storage and transportation systems that provide producers multi-market optionality and flow assurance.	The company was acquired by Ares Management through an LBO on September 6, 2018 for an undisclosed sum.
Six One Commodities	Operator of a natural gas wholesale trading company.	The company, a subsidiary of Sierentz Global Merchants, was acquired by Pinnacle Asset Management, via its financial sponsor Dyal Capital Partners, through an LBO on September 6, 2018 for an undisclosed sum.
STS Consulting Services (Inspection Business)	Provider of third party inspection services for the oil and gas industries in the U.S. The company offers pressure vessel and tank consulting, electrical and instrumentation consulting, chief, civil, environmental and safety consulting services.	The company, a subsidiary of Sts Consulting Services, was acquired by Applied-Cleveland Holdings, via its financial sponsors Nautic Partners and First Reserve, through an LBO on September 13, 2018 for an undisclosed sum.

Energy Deals for September 2018

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Sunnova Energy	Provider of solar panels and battery storage services in the U.S. The company's residential solar and battery storages enable homeowners to generate low-cost, worry-free solar solar energy and battery storage that generates long-term value and savings and facilitates continued business growth for its network of trusted partners.	The company received $160 million of development capital from Soros Fund Management and other undisclosed investors on September 14, 2018.
Tall City Exploration	Explorer of oil and gas assets. The company acquires, explores and develops oil and gas assets with a specific focus on upstream unconventional activities in the Permian Basin of West Texas.	The company received $500 million of development capital from Warburg Pincus on September 17, 2018.
Unison Energy	Provider of on-site power generation services. The company develops, installs, builds, maintains, owns and operates on-site power generation projects and also provide electric and thermal energy, providing hospitals, hotels, supermarkets and manufacturing facilities with an environmentally friendly energy at reduced cost.	The company was acquired by American Infrastructure Funds through a $150 million LBO on September 25, 2018 for an undisclosed sum. Hunt Companies also participated in the round.